

Underground Modular Conservancy Tank

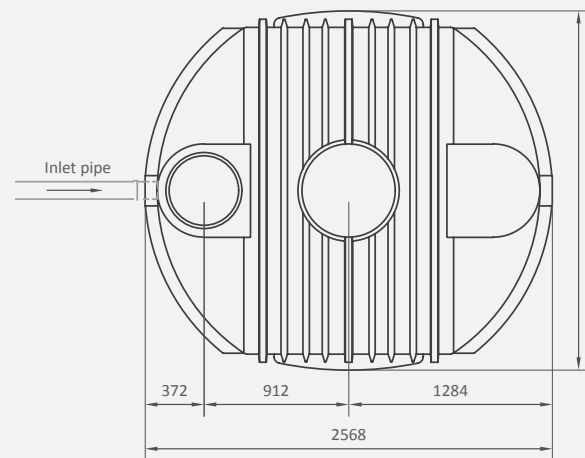

5500L

Often used as conservancy tanks, our modular range provides the opportunity of collecting and holding wastewater on site while preventing the contamination of groundwater. The stored wastewater is then collected periodically by a waste disposal company and transferred to a suitable treatment plant.

Side view

Front view

Product specifications:

Application:

- Below ground
- Where connection to the sewer line or a soak-away French drain is not feasible possible
- Not suited for clay type soils with a high-water table, or areas that are frequently flooded
- Not suited for use in the path of vehicles heavy equipment or where underground services are expected (i.e., electric cables, water and sewer pipes, gas lines etc.)

Supplied with:

- 1) 1x 460mm lid complete with:
 - 300mm high lid extension
- 2) 1x 560mm lid complete with:
 - 150mm high lid extension
- 3) Inlet fitted with:
 - 110mm socket
 - 110mm rubber gasket
 - 110mm (d) x 300mm (l) PVC pipe

Availability:

Standard colour ●

10-year Warranty

Note: All dimensions are in millimetres and the drawings are not to scale. The design is the property of Calcamite.